Community Services Block Grant (CSBG) Discretionary FY2021 Request for Proposals Sept. 2021 (RFP)

The State Community Services Office (SCSO) is accepting CSBG Discretionary proposals to strengthen the capacity of the emergency food network through effective and targeted teaching and technical assistance provided via a network association; to strengthen the impact of services for low-income individuals and families of Utah through targeted research, advocacy, leadership and support, especially in the furtherance of connecting low-income individuals and families with other forms of subsidy and/or support which promote further stabilization; and to provide SCSO with county level profiles detailing local need and resources.

Proposals should also address support of community level initiatives that bring multiple stake holders and funding sources together to redress identified need. Subcontracting of this funding is not permitted.
